

Unit OF15 Evaluate the quality of competition and communicate judgments consistently

Introduction

Summary

In some sports/activities, competition depends on the quality of performance. Officials in this context need to be able to evaluate performance consistently against agreed criteria for competition at the level they are operating at.

The unit is divided into three parts. The first part describes what you have to do. This is:

OF15.1 Make and communicate judgments about the quality of performance

The second part covers the knowledge and understanding you must have.

Target Group

This unit is for officials in a variety of sports and officiating roles at the higher levels in their sport/activity (usually at national level).

Unit OF15 Evaluate the quality of competition and communicate judgments consistently

OF15.1

Make and communicate judgments about the quality of performance

The National Standard

What you must do

To meet the national standard, you must:

1. identify and analyse the standards of performance and their gradations for the competition you are judging
2. ensure you have a common understanding with others involved in the competition
3. accurately monitor competitors' performance as required for your role
4. accurately evaluate competitors' performance against the agreed standards and gradations
5. record and communicate your judgments promptly and consistently

What you must cover

You must show that you can meet the standard opposite

Unit OF15 Evaluate the quality of competition and communicate judgments consistently

What you must know and understand

To be competent in this unit, you must know and understand the following

- K1 The standards and gradations of competition appropriate to the level at which you officiate in your sport/activity
- K2 Sources of information on standards and gradations
- K3 How to ensure you have a common understanding of standards and gradations of performance and why this is important
- K4 How to accurately monitor performance
- K5 How to accurately evaluate competitors' performance against agreed standards and gradations
- K6 How to communicate your judgments